Hey Ally, you look great!

Oh, thank you!
That's really sweet!

Anonymous asked:

Hey ally you look pretty, what's the special occasion?

Oh, if you remember,
I'm going out with Howie tonight.

ladyinsertnamehere asked:

So, Ally, you set and ready for some - ...stargazing?

...okay, small confession.
We're not ACTUALLY going stargazing.

I just couldn't say where we're ACTUALLY going with my mom there.

ladyinsertnamehere asked:

So, Ally, you set and ready for some - ...stargazing?

And NO, despite that dumb shit Eve said, we're NOT going out there to make out either.

She's so weird.

Anonymous asked:

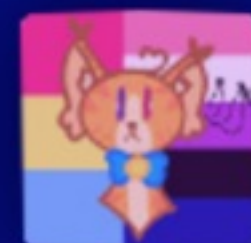

Are you bringing snacks to your rendezvous?

I didn't think about bringing snacks...

Maybe it's a good idea, though.

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

Yes! You're smart for figuring that out! But we aren't just doing your everyday scope of the sky.

You see, we're going somewhere specific.

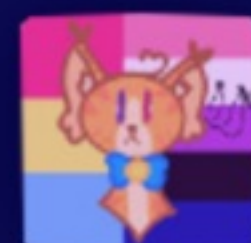

We're going to visit the location of the East Eroid incident, also known as the East Eroid crash site.

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

You see, my family lives in East Eroid, Moorening. This city is famous for the fact it was the center of attention in 6016 when there was a crash landing of a UFO reported west of the town in the more heavily wooded areas.

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

Strange lights that were too large and too bright to be stars had been reported over the city that night...

There are hundreds of eyewitness account and even video of the lights reported that night.

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

And then, on that same night... there were other reports west of the town in the woods of a so-called "shooting star" flying over the forest and crashing down somewhere in it.

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

A full-scale search of the area was done to try and locate the object that had landed...

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

...and what was allegedly found there was a sharp-edged, glowing, unusually-shaped, crystal-like object with a strip of metal lining the middle that bore smaller lights.

The initial first reports of the object said it looked like an alien vessel.

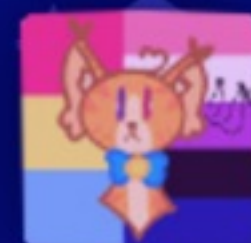

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

But an unusual detail about the case was that no photos of the actual object were ever released to the public, and experts later called the object merely a meteorite.

There were photos of the impact crater, and the crater is still visible today, but the object itself and any evidence of it totally vanished under suspicious circumstances.

kp-does-suff asked:

Are you guys gonna look for aliens!? That's really cool!

Even the original people who gave those first descriptions of the object later recanted their statements and said it was a meteorite. There were like, 20-30 people who were on that search that night that gave those firsthand accounts!

There's NO WAY that many people can somehow mistake a big rock for a fucking spacecraft! It makes no damn sense!!! And it doesn't make sense for them to cover it up, either!!!

Anonymous asked:

Why doesn't Uni like aliens?

My mother has a phobia of aliens. A really, really bad one.

She's got many reasons. Her biggest reasons have to do with the fact she had recurring nightmares about being abducted by aliens as a child.

He said they would cut him open and torture him and experiment on him in the dreams, and that he could never go home.

She really doesn't like hearing about aliens or UFOs or anything.

sillyfunny asked:

I'm excited to meet this Howie guy! Where you meeting him?

He's coming here to my house, and then we're gonna walk through the woods to the crash site!

East Eroid is kind of small, so pretty much everything is in walking distance, plus we live in the wooded area of town already.

Anonymous asked:

does howie like space too?

Pup does. He feels a similar connection to it as me...

I remember when we were kids I told him lots of stuff about space that my dad told me. He didn't know a lot about it, but it really interested pup.

Anonymous asked:

I noticed a orange bottle.. like for medicine or something, what does ally take?

Oh... that's a supplement I take for my immune system. I have a weak immune system like my dad and I take the same thing as him.

Anonymous asked:

Have your parents ever shown Howie you baby pics?

Well, yeah. He's basically known me for most of my life. I met pup when I was 5. Surely he'd see them at some point.

Anonymous asked:

Did you and Howie get picked on in school?

...Some people are mean to Howie about the way he talks.

I think it's stupid. I like his silly voice. It's very cute and charming. People are just mean. It makes me really mad.

Oh! We're going out to the East Eroid crash site to see if we can see any UFOs. This is the perfect time of year for UFO sightings statistically.

The weather is perfect!

Are you going alone?

Anonymous asked:

Barry you've got a dirtier mind than you're letting on it appears

I-I don't have a "dirty mind", I'm just being realistic... you two are young, a-and when young people are alone together-

Dad, the only one making this into something weird is YOU. That's not what we're going out to do. Mom would never say this to me.

Well, I didn't come in here to admonish you for it, I came to give you my support and love, I'm sorry if you can't see that.

This wasn't a gesture of disapproval, it was me trying to be a good father.

I never want you to feel like I don't see you as an adult capable of making responsible choices.

I want you to always know I'm on your side and I'll never put you down for stuff like this. Some dads can be like that, and I never want to do that to you.

Y-yeah, that's- that's real cool, awesome, great, and I appreciate it but I swear that the support is NOT necessary in this situation.

You are DRAMATICALLY
misunderstanding the purpose of our outing tonight.

Sigh I end up embarrassing my kids no matter what I do...
Maybe I'm doing something wrong... I don't know...

Well, I'm sure he'll be here soon, you should probably come downstairs to greet pup when pup gets here.

Anonymous asked:

cmon ally, your dad is just trying to keep you safe. it might be embarrassing to talk about, but its important! dont be so hard on him, okay?

Yeah, I got that. I understand he was just trying to be supportive of me, but it's just awkward and it stressed me out.

I wish he didn't assume that's what we were doing.

(We haven't even done that before anyways...)

Well... I guess I'll go wait for pup down

What kind of videos do you watch on Kneetube?

I have a huge interest in 6000s-6020s internet stuff, so I watch a lot of videos talking about that era and even go back and watch videos that are also that old.

The internet 30-40 years ago was a LOT different than it is now, and it's so fascinating to me.

My nearmom Uni has had her KneeTube channel since 6017 and it's super, super cool. I actually love talking to her about this stuff.

I think you should genuinely apologize Eve, even if you were just joking you hurt Howie. It's all fun and games till someone gets hurt.

H-hey, um...
Howie...

I-I'm sorry for mimicking your voice... I don't really want to make people upset when I say mean things, I'm just being stupid. I'm sorry for hurting you. I'll try to do better.

Bimbo just means stupid woman, but you know, you might be right. I think that I respect and appreciate women too much to compare them to those things over there.

THE EAST EROID INCIDENT

Noctober 5th, 6016

"...On Noctober 5th, 6016, there was a crash landing of an unidentified flying object in East Eroid, Moorening. The object crashed in the woods following sightings of mysterious lights over the city that night. There was then a sighting of what people called a "comet" landing in the woods, leading to the discovery of the UFO by local authorities. Initial reports described the object as a flying saucer but these reports were later recanted and it was believed by many to be a massive coverup by the government of the arrival of aliens to Spinch. To this day, people are still searching for the truth of what happened that night."

A cartoon illustration featuring two characters in a night setting. On the left, a character with light green skin, a yellow horn, and yellow and green sunglasses is shown from the chest up, looking towards the right. On the right, a character with light green hair and pink sunglasses is shown from the chest up, looking towards the left. The background consists of dark green hills and a dark blue sky with white stars and constellations. Three pink speech bubbles are present, containing text. The overall style is bold and colorful.

You don't really believe that, do you?

What's your explanation for it, then?

It's a hoax. A publicity stunt. Just to get people's attentions.

d00msdaydevice asked:

Hey Sly what's that by your foot there?

hello Chem

Greetings! Hello!
How are you!

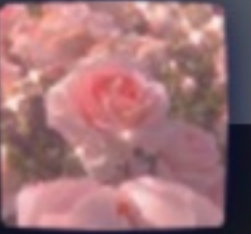

starfireseraphim asked:

Hey Chem! What're you working on?

Oh- I'm working on putting together a hydraulic arm! Like a claw machine but more convoluted.

This joystick is the controller, it's what I had on hand.

r0ses1nbl00m asked:

is chem having an entire laboratory in their house a normal thing?

I mean. It's where I live.
There's not much of a more normal place for me to be.

arsene-rl asked:

Chem! Your lab looks so cool! Did you build it yourself?

I designed a lot of it and picked out my equipment but I had a lot of help putting it together!

sinnamonsters asked:

That controller doesn't quite look hooked up to anything... how far are you exactly into making it? Can we see the progress if there is any?? I'm actually really curious to learn more :o

It's wireless.

And uh, there's not a lot to show besides that the claw moves around a bit. We're pretty early on this project here.

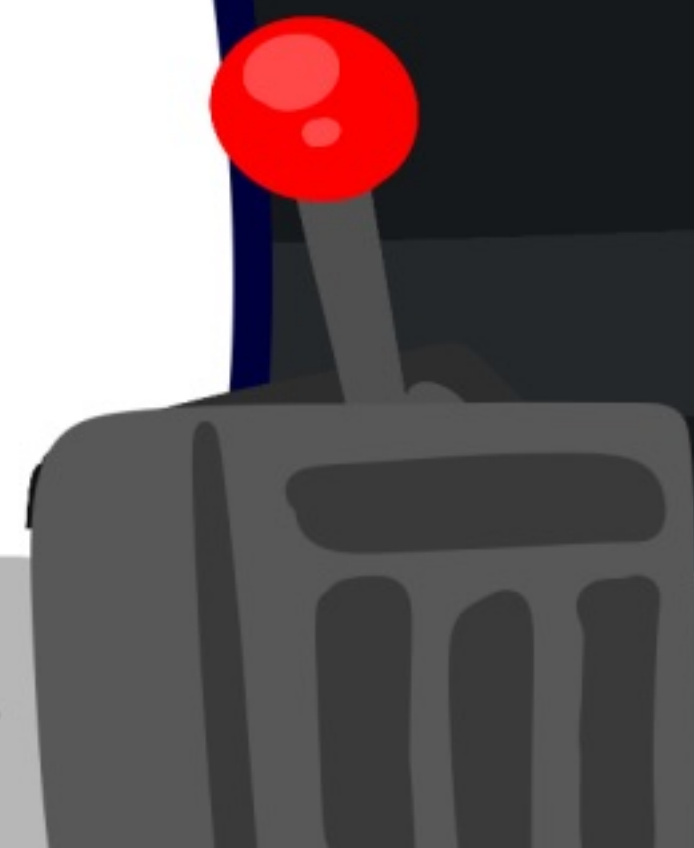

trickyhofnarr asked:

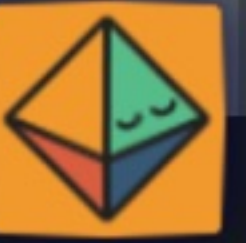

do you believe in aliens, chem?

Maybe.

gooeydestroyerofworlds asked:

Who helped put it together?

Mostly Barry and Polaris, they're the best at helping me parsleysparlor asked:

Marco is far better at coding than I've ever been, he does his fair share of helping with my projects, I appreciate it.

Present thy keychain

Hey, so, we went with Howie and Ally out to the East Eroid crash site, and I found this keychain-thingy in the dirt by the impact crater. What is it?

Hm... let's see here...

))

CLICK

IT'S AN ALIEN
RAY GUN!!!!!!

It's a small handheld device with a laser diode. These create beams of visible light usually only visible when striking an opaque surface. They generate light beams using laser radiation. The small size and shape of this device in particular probably indicates that it's a form of enrichment for domestic ferries that have their predatory instincts triggered by the beam and will in turn chase it (unsuccessfully.)

It's a cog toy!

restartless asked:

Wouldn't it being a "laser pointer" be a more accurate description?

Well, yes, that is what it is, but I thought that delivery would be more comical.

I like to be silly sometimes. I'm not all serious!

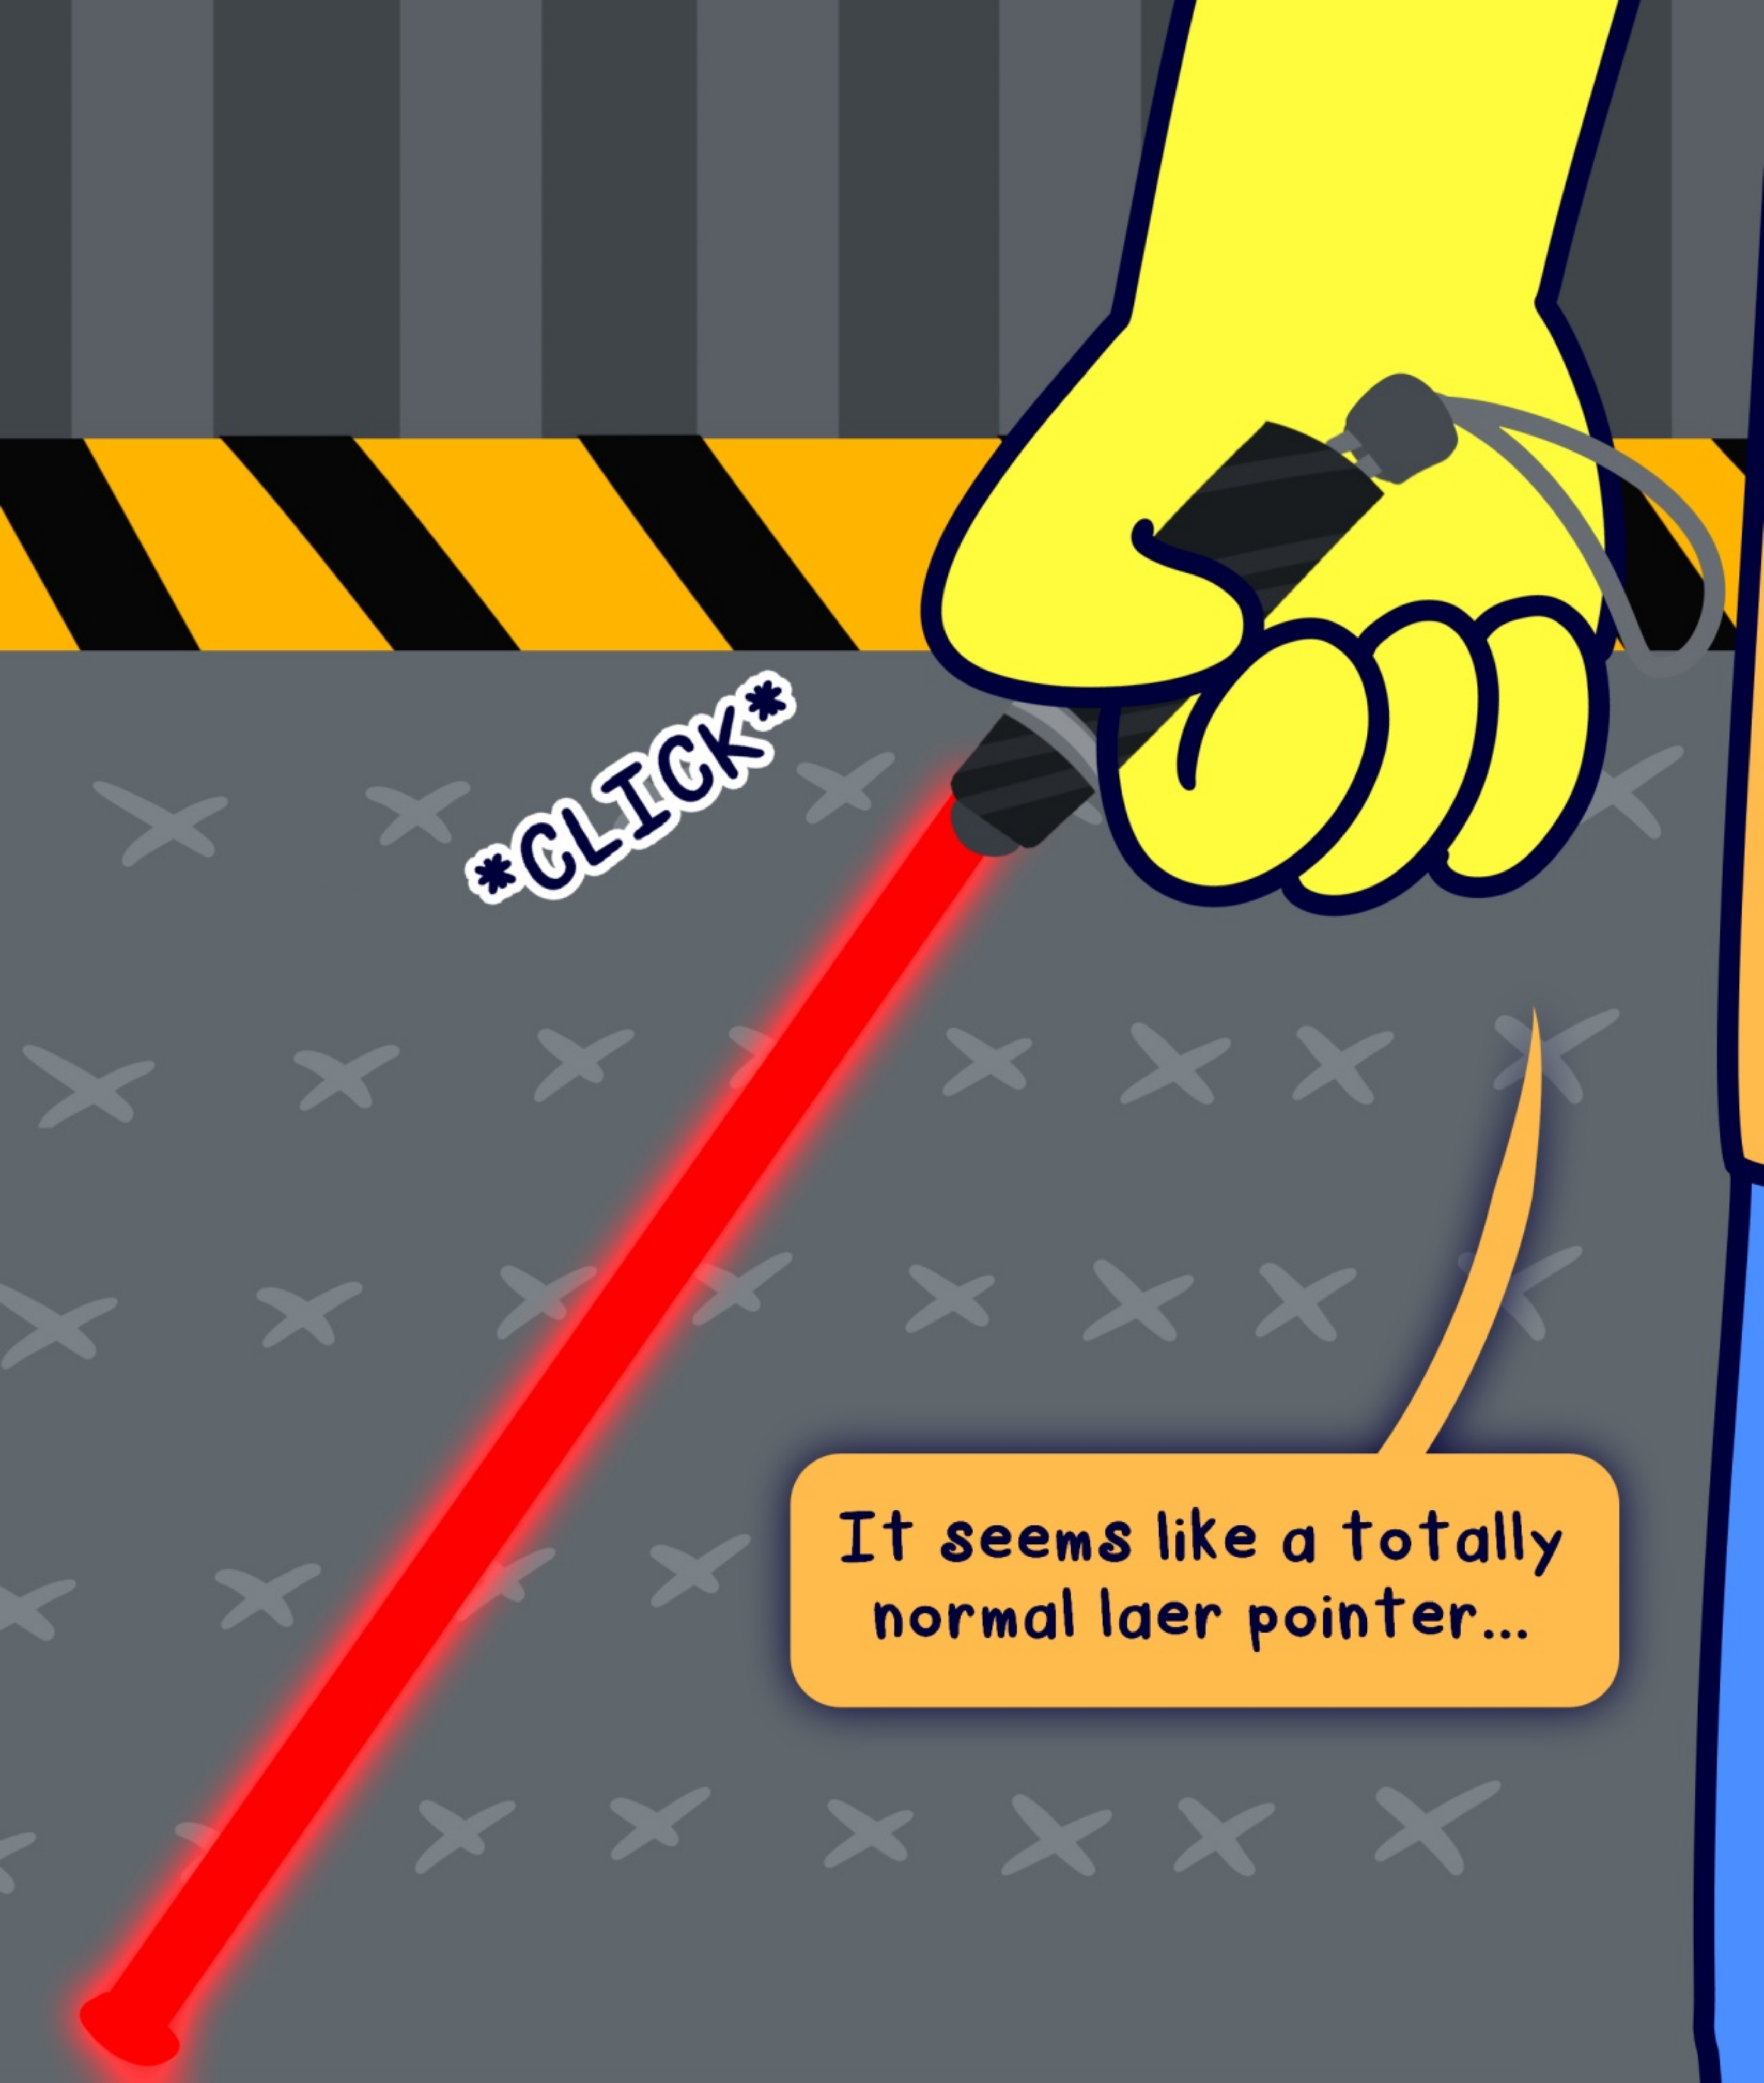

ladyinsertnamehere asked:

What's a laser pointer for animals doing out there in a crater?

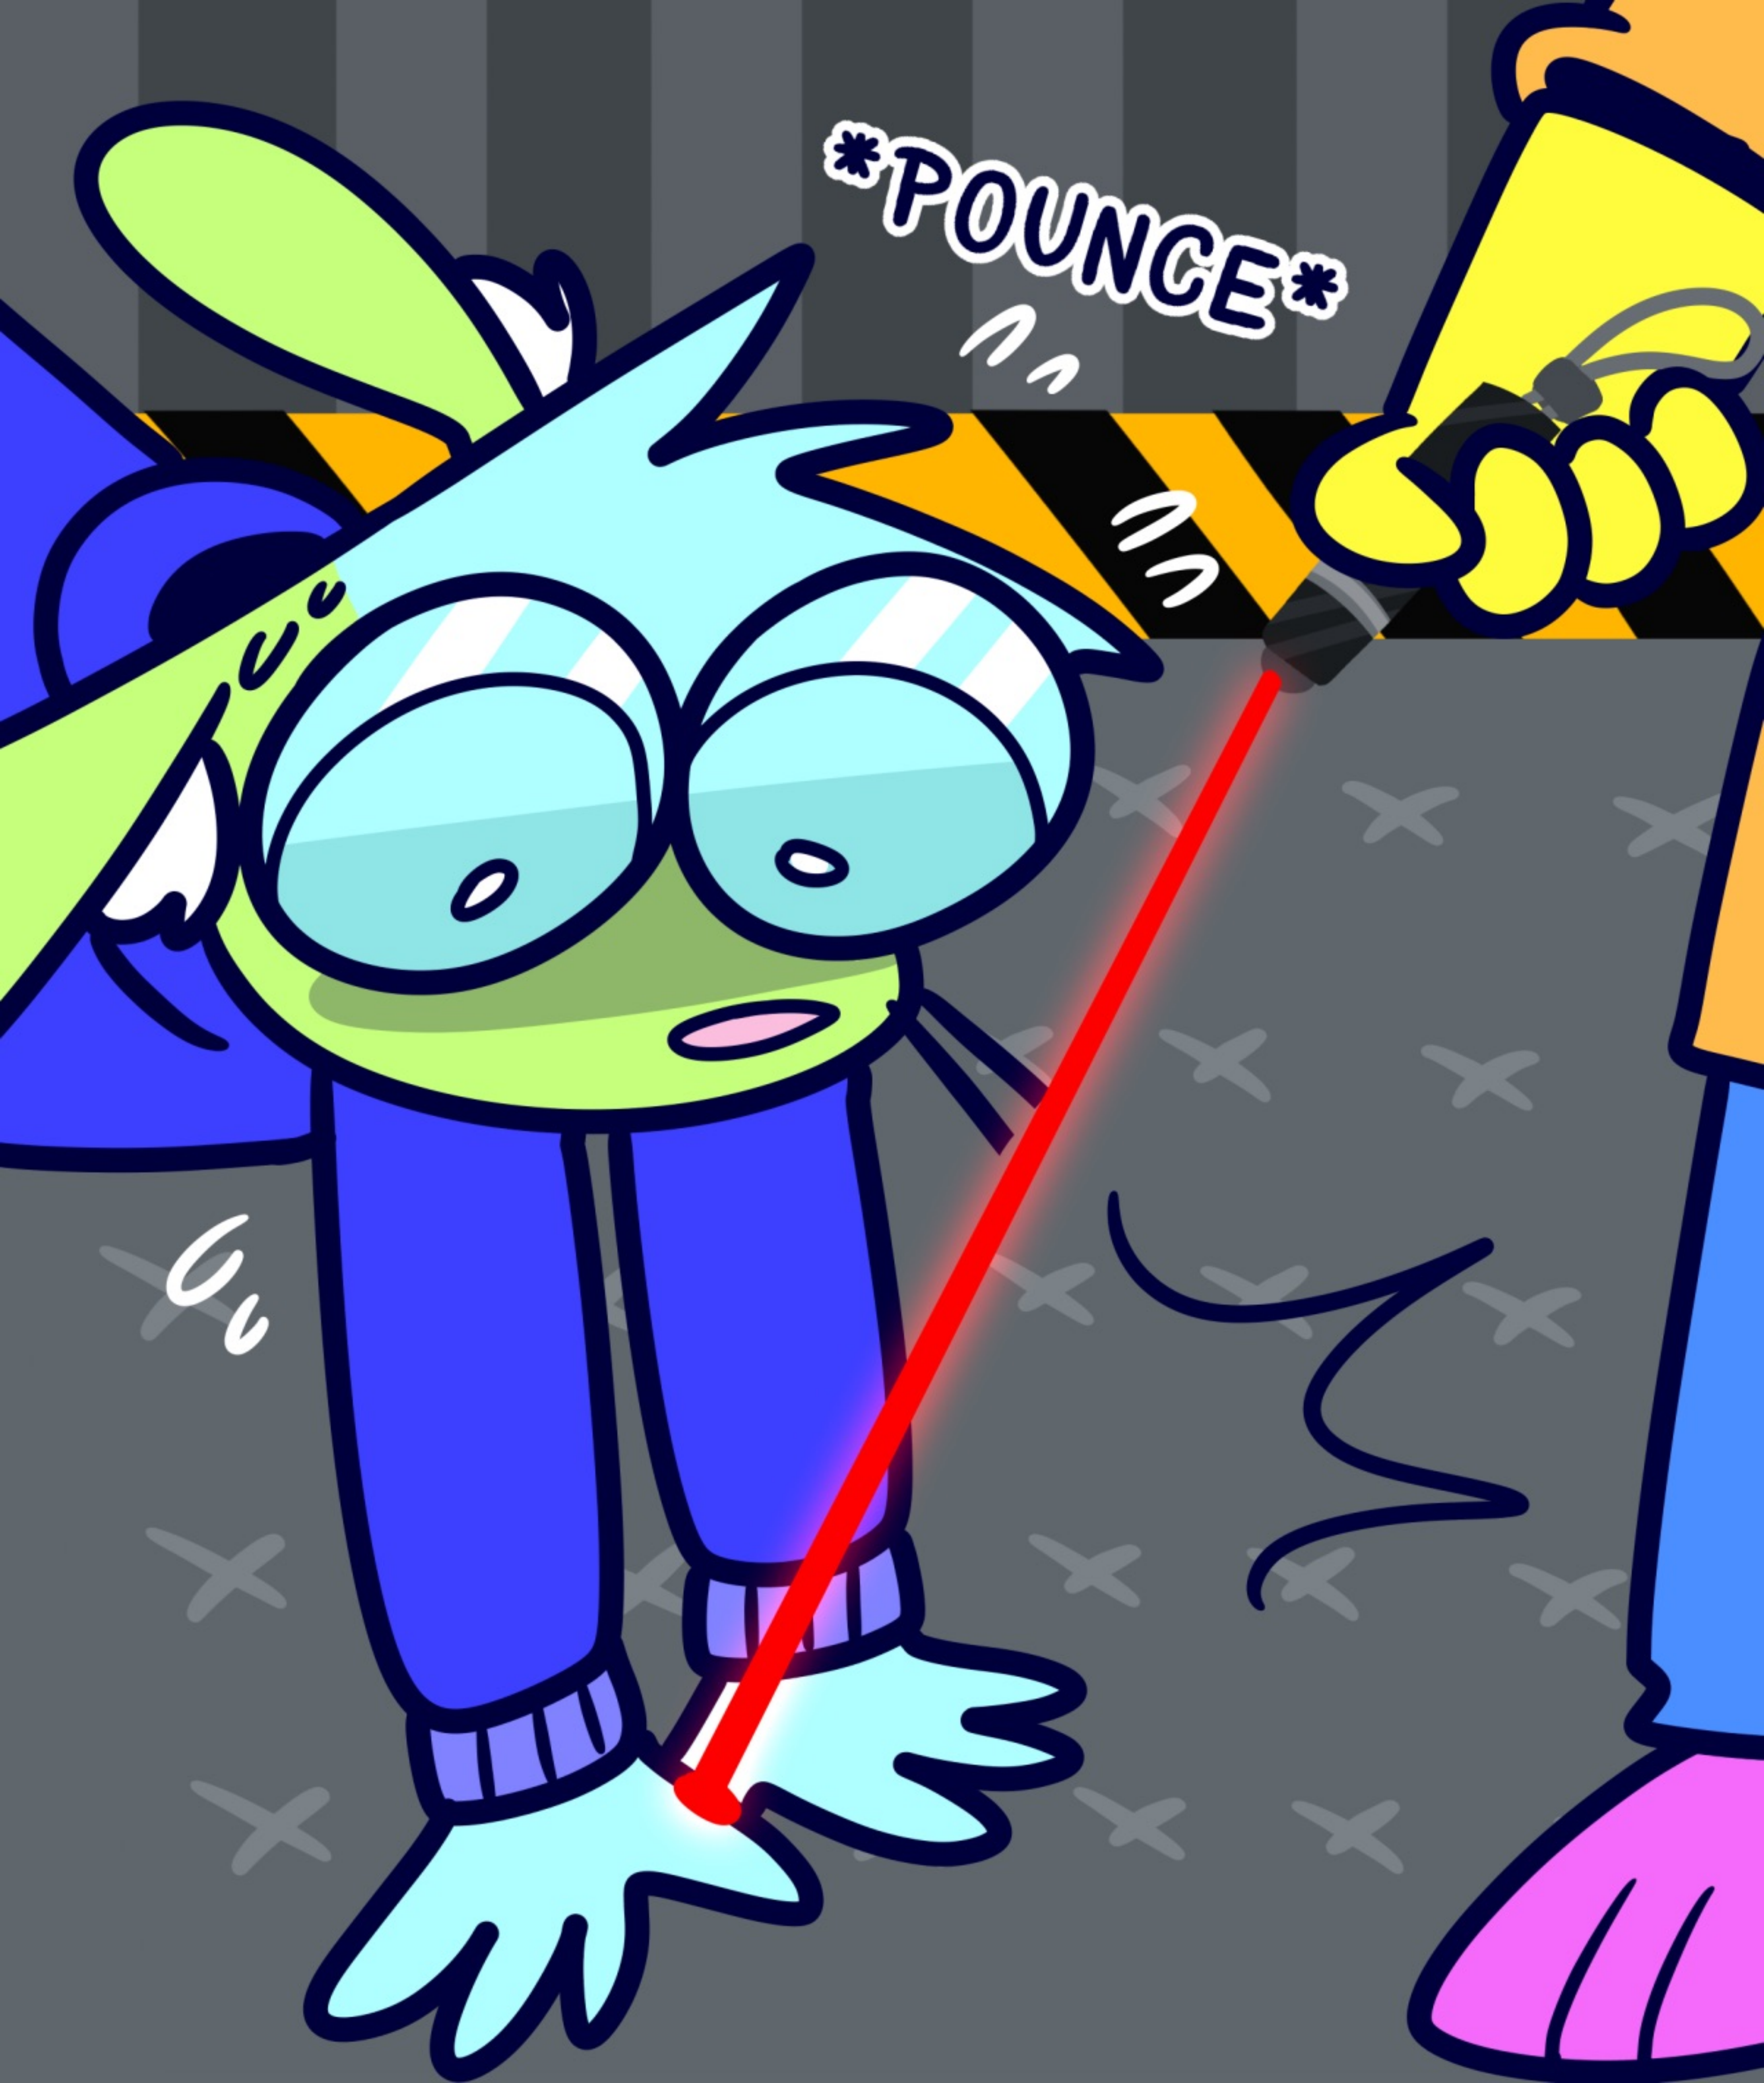

I'm... unsure. The first thought I had was it being left behind by the search cogs that discovered the crater, but you'd have think someone would have found it in the past 31 years...

It seems like a totally normal laser pointer...

THIS MAN IS A WILD

What the fuck are you talking about...?!

enderlordisadumbusername asked:

sly what the fuck was that?!?!?

I-I'm really confused, what are you guys talking about...?!

radioxen asked:

Sly are you ok? Remember anything from the past few seconds?

...n-no, I... I don't know how I got on the floor...

It's like I was standing in the doorway one second then... teleported?

radioxen asked:

Eve don't you see you were RIGHT it's an alien RAY GUN!!

logmanloggy asked:

bud eve is always right about sly no offense

PET PET

No, no, I'm sure it's not really an alien ray gun. I think I was just right, Sly is just a creature that comes from deep in the jungle acting on his predatory instincts~

I still have no idea what the fuck you're saying. What did I DO???

You attacked the beam when I turned it on like a cog would. I think it's interesting that you don't remember it...

I- I WHAT?
Why would I do that...?!

CRAWL

CRAWL

CRAWL

...the spider is also attracted to the laser.

This can only mean one thing.

doatunny asked:

what is it , chem ? 🤔

This is a device that is specifically designed to attract ferries or beings with ferry levels of sapience or intelligence, likely to lure them in by either aliens or government officials to experiment on them.

...so, by this logic, Sly either has ferry levels of intelligence... or he's a ferry.

mothgoop asked:

wow sly youre dumb as hell....go read a book or something /silly

I-I'M NOT DUMB!

Then why's the laser affecting you, little ferry boy? Little chipmonkey boy?~

S-STOP CALLING ME A

THAT SMALL!!!!

sinnamonsters asked:

Hmm? Got anything to say, Sly?

Should we get you some more toys, little ferry boy? Do you want squeaky toys? Jingly balls?
Little fish toys that make sound effects?

I-I'M NOT A FERRY!!! AND STOP TOUCHING ME YOU MANIAC!!!

PET
PET

Then what's your explanation for why it controlled you~?

I DON'T KNOW!!! BUT IT'S NOT BECAUSE I'M STUPID OR A FERRY!!!!!!

Is there no other possible explanation for why it'd affect him?

Well... there may be ONE... but it's a bit of a long shot.

It's possible that it's identifying ferries by being usually smaller than anthries... maybe looking for ones that would put up less of a fight than, say, a hamstear. So, basically...

The laser probably thinks Sly is a ferry because he's so small.

ladyinsertnamehere asked:

Which is it sly? Which is it?

So... it's one of three things. Sly is either stupid or a ferry or he's so small that aliens think he is one.

The cat on the right is white with yellow hair, wearing large pink sunglasses and a pink turtleneck sweater. The cat on the left is light blue with a red collar and a blue shirt. gooeydestroyerofworlds asked:

If we want to be completely and totally sure, though, we can always consult the family expert on paranormal matters and ferry behavior.

Hmmm...

geencream asked:

HI BLAIR

AHHH!!!! WHERE'S THAT VOICE COMING FROM?!?

Oh... right... it's just the internet people...

(C'mon, Blair, your job is literally reliant on being able to handle disembodied voices...)

d00msdaydevice asked:

Hey Blair!! How's ghost hunting going?

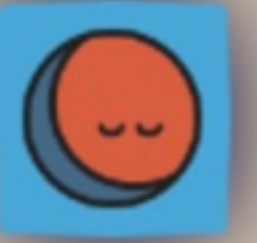

AHEM, FOR THE RECORD, the paranormal investigative field extends beyond mere "ghost hunting", there are many different areas of study I could be working in at any given time.

There is also UF0logy and cryptozoology and parapsychology to name a few. To assume I'm "ghost hunting" and nothing else is generalizing my career into one thing.

electricentertainer asked:

Blair, opinions on the moon in relation to cheese?

Dumb theory. SALSA disproved it years ago, idiot. When something gets proved it's not a paranormal anymore.

(By the way, SALSA is the Spinch Agency of Logical Space Astronomy).

eeveeskittles asked:

Blair! Do you have any studies on cryptozoology?

I recently did a school report on the mystery of Bigpaw! I... got an D on it because I misunderstood the assignment... but my teacher thought it was creative so she didn't flunk me.

sinnamonsters asked:

Have you ever seen a ghost before? What did they look like?? Were they scary, or were they like, normal? At least like, our standards of normal... whatever!! Surely you've had to see at least one, right??

U-uhmmm... no.. I haven't... I'd like to someday... after I've... um... h-had some mental preparation...

ladyinsertnamehere asked:

Blair do you reckon if you tried hard enough you could be pals with a ghost?

...maybe... if...
if they were nice to me...

missalfun asked:

Hai Blair! When did you get interested in ghost stuff and why?

My mom's a huge fan of spooky stuff, so we watched a lot of scary movies when I was younger! It wasn't gory or violent things, just creepy.

missalfun asked:

Hai Blair! When did you get interested in ghost stuff and why?

...when I got a little older I started to like more violent things, and through that I found out that our other parents, ESPECIALLY my dad, REALLY don't like violent movies...

missalfun asked:

Hai Blair! When did you get interested in ghost stuff and why?

My dad says he just doesn't like seeing people in pain, but I think he just has a weak stomach and is too scared to admit it.

missalfun asked:

Hai Blair! When did you get interested in ghost stuff and why?

...I mean, that makes the most sense anyways.

m3k1e asked:

Hey, Blair! Just a question. If the ghosts are getting mad, would they spin up furnitures and stuff just to tackle them like some sort of poltergeist?

The thing about poltergeists versus a regular spirit is that they usually latch onto one person or a group of people, like, a family for example- and specifically try to torment those person(s).

In fact, some people believe poltergeists aren't even actually spirits at all, but destructive psychic energy - but that doesn't always seem to be the reality for some poltergeist cases where they appear to have a malevolent personality.

Some even say they're animons or entities from other dimensions. They aren't just "angry spirits" who cause chaos, it's MUCH more complex than that!!!

nowadaysrealnewsnetwork asked:

What's up with cryptozoologists, anyway? Once you find out something is real, it's no longer a cryptid, so wouldn't you be out of a job if everything was discovered?

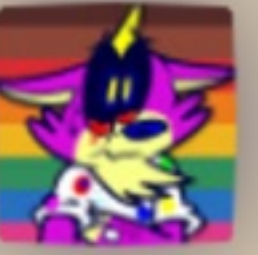

Well, our entire job is actually to prove the existence of unknown creatures. That's our GOAL. Somebody has to pursue the unknown, even if it means it won't be unknown anymore.

bandaidbeetles asked:

Blair how do you feel knowing that inevitably you'll become a ghost?

If I die and you're wondering where to find my ghost, you'll find me haunting Sly for the rest of his days. He better watch out.

enderlordisadumbusername asked:

huh?! what's your issue with sly?!

You're joking, right? The dude smells like he hasn't showered in three years and honestly I wouldn't be surprised if he hasn't. He's so gross and weird and all he ever does is yell at everybody because stuff doesn't go his way.

Maybe I'd be able to stand him a little more if he wasn't such a JERK all the time!!!

starfireseraphim asked:

Blair, how do you feel about Eve?

Eve is one of my best friends ever!! We started to become really close when I was 7 because I started to develop immune system problems and she helped my dad with taking care of me when I was home a lot.

She wasn't doing so good at the time either and she said it made her feel better to be there for me when I was so helpless.

Squeak promised she'd always protect me when I'm scared or sick and tags along with me on my ghost hunts so I'm not as frightened!

radioxen asked:

Hey Blair! Would you be willing to share with us what you know about the East Eroid crash and what your thoughts are on the theories surrounding it?

Ah, yes! This is one of my favorite cases, not only because it happened in my hometown, but in general!

This case is most definitely a government cover-up, and the reasons are not totally clear -- many theories tend to lean towards worries of causing a mass panic in anthy society.

radioxen asked:

Hey Blair! Would you be willing to share with us what you know about the East Eroid crash and what your thoughts are on the theories surrounding it?

I mean, all photos of the UFO disappeared without explanation from news sites and all social media. Everyone changed their stories. Some just refuse to talk about it at all.

It's almost as if they don't want the world to remember what happened because the truth of what they found was too horrific...

radioxen asked:

Hey Blair! Would you be willing to share with us what you know about the East Eroid crash and what your thoughts are on the theories surrounding it?

W-what could be so horrible that they wouldn't want anyone to talk about it?

Are they trying to protect us from some awful, scary truth? Something even they still don't understand after 31 years?

You'd think they'd know SOMETHING by now-- and if they do, why aren't they saying anything?!

enderlordisadumbusername asked:

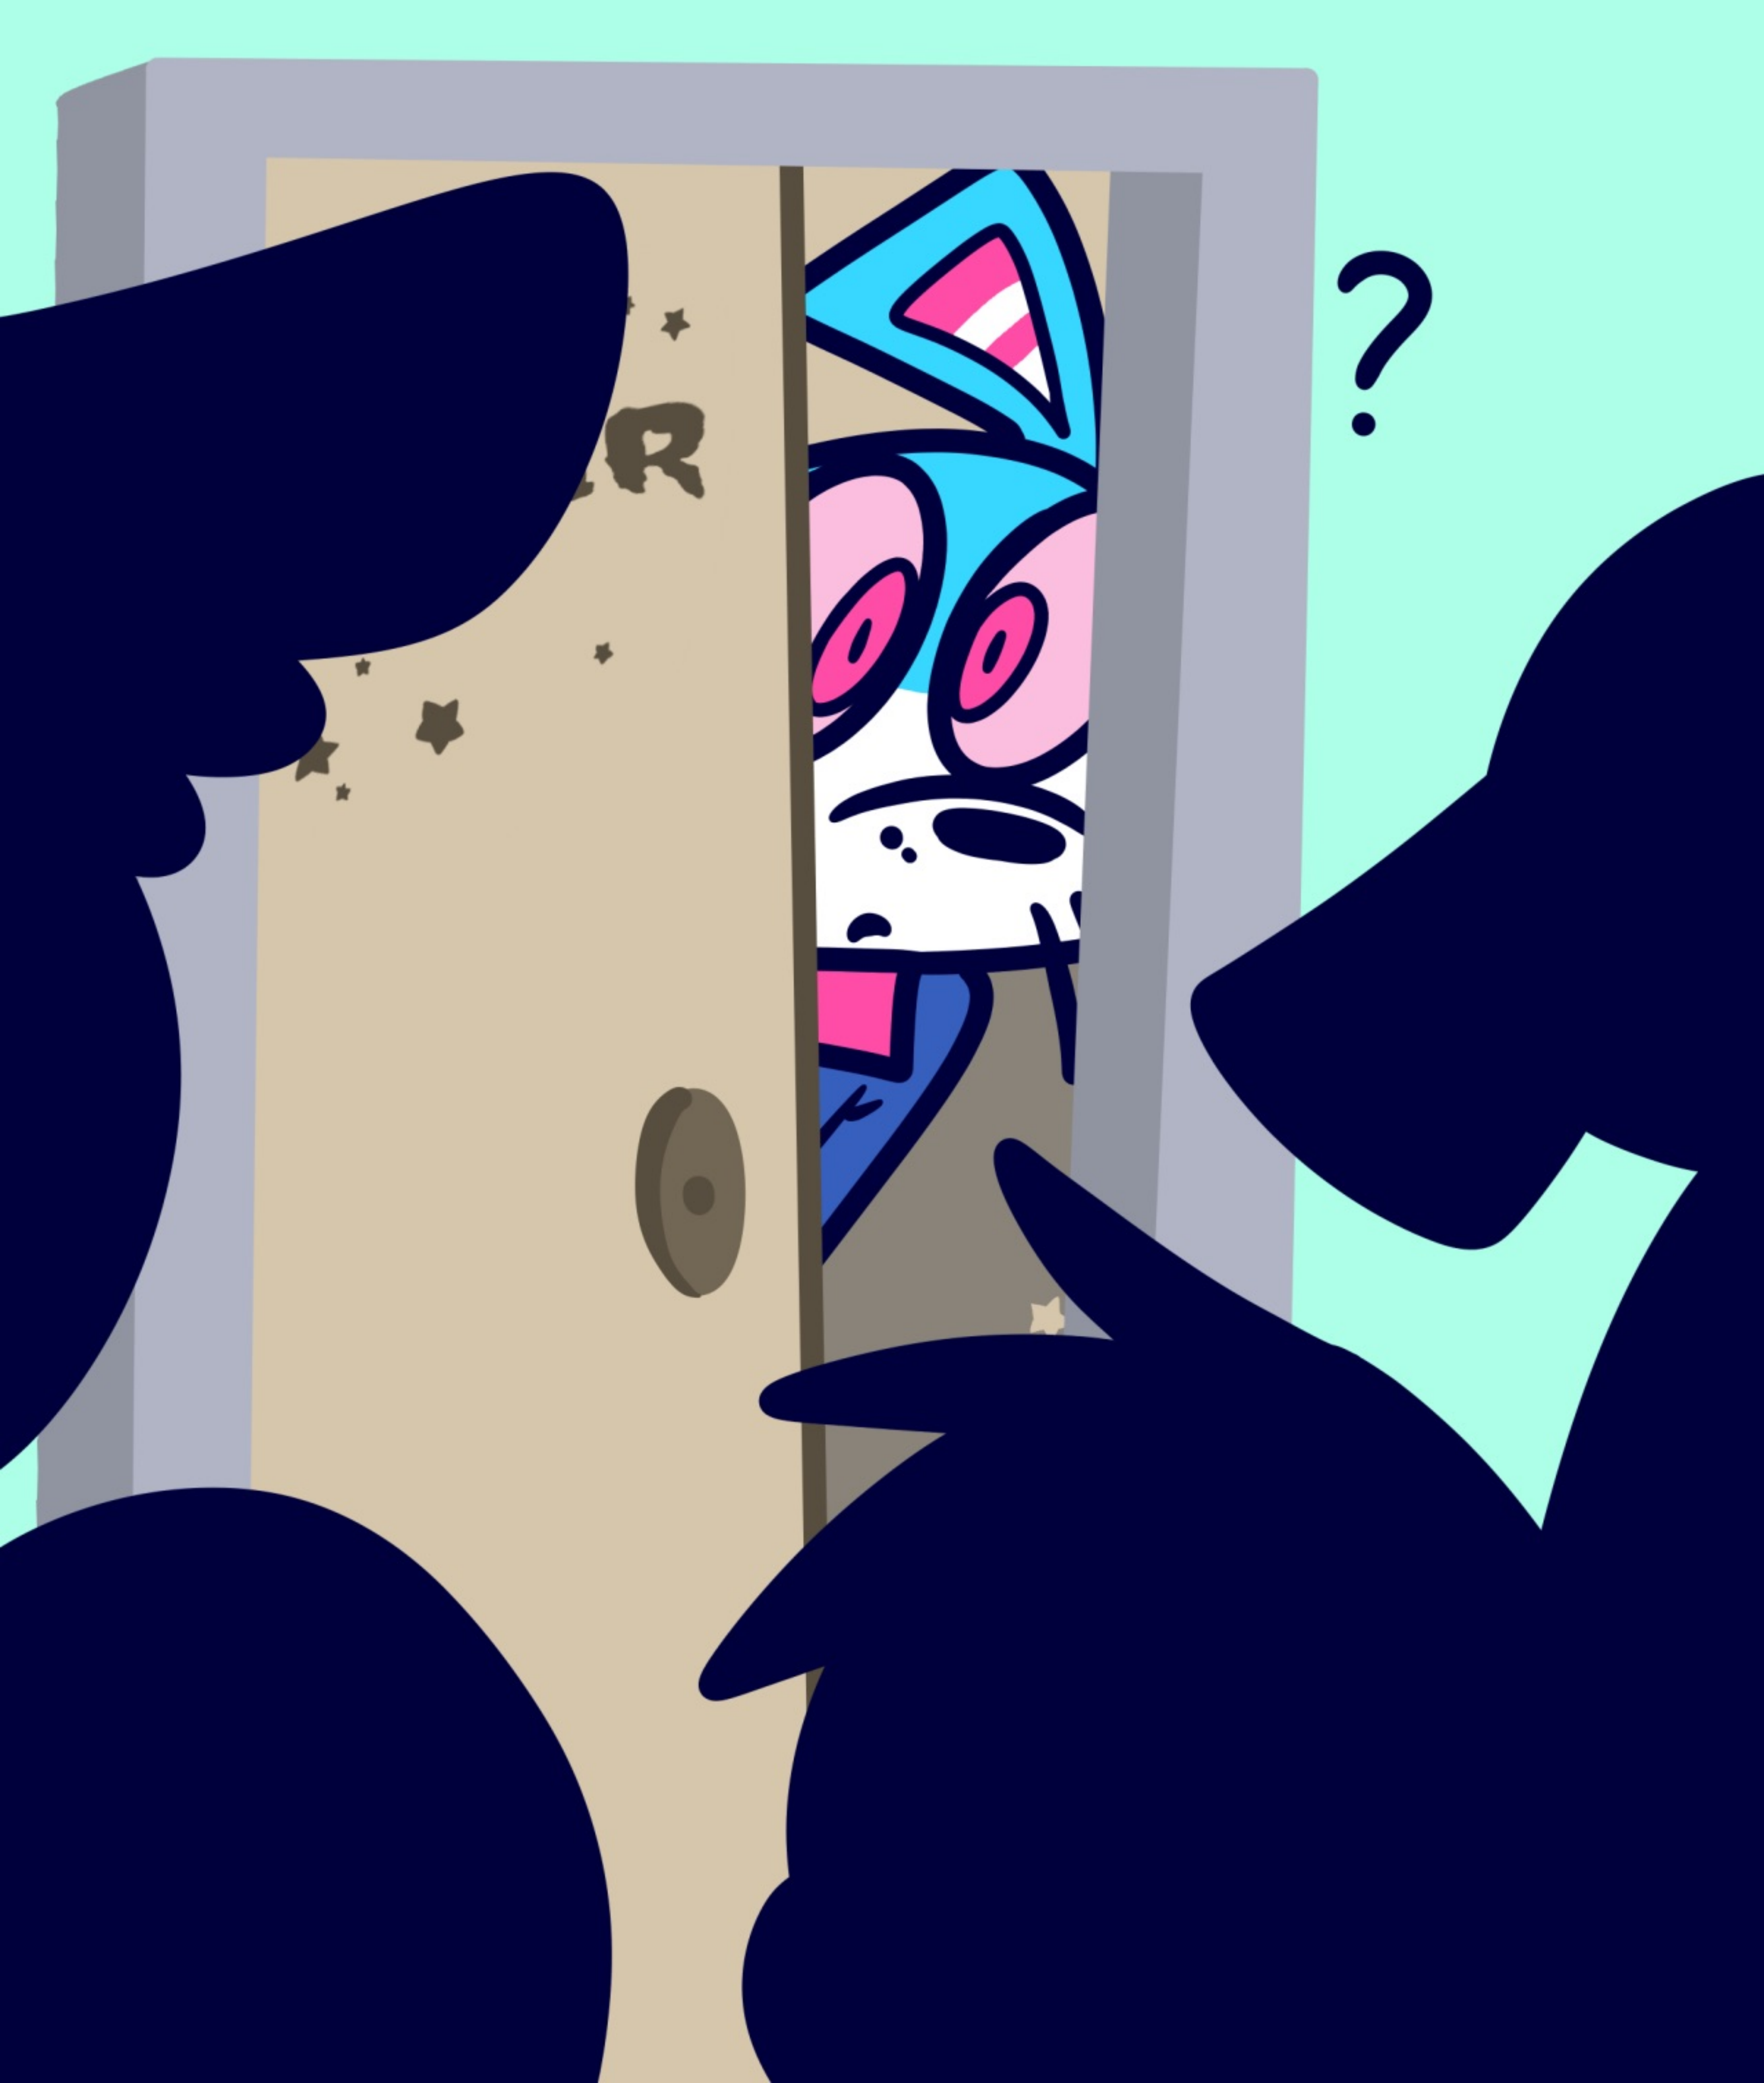

oh btw, sly found a mind controlling laser pointer at the crash site. you should go to chem's room and check it out

KNOCK

KNOCK

KNOCK

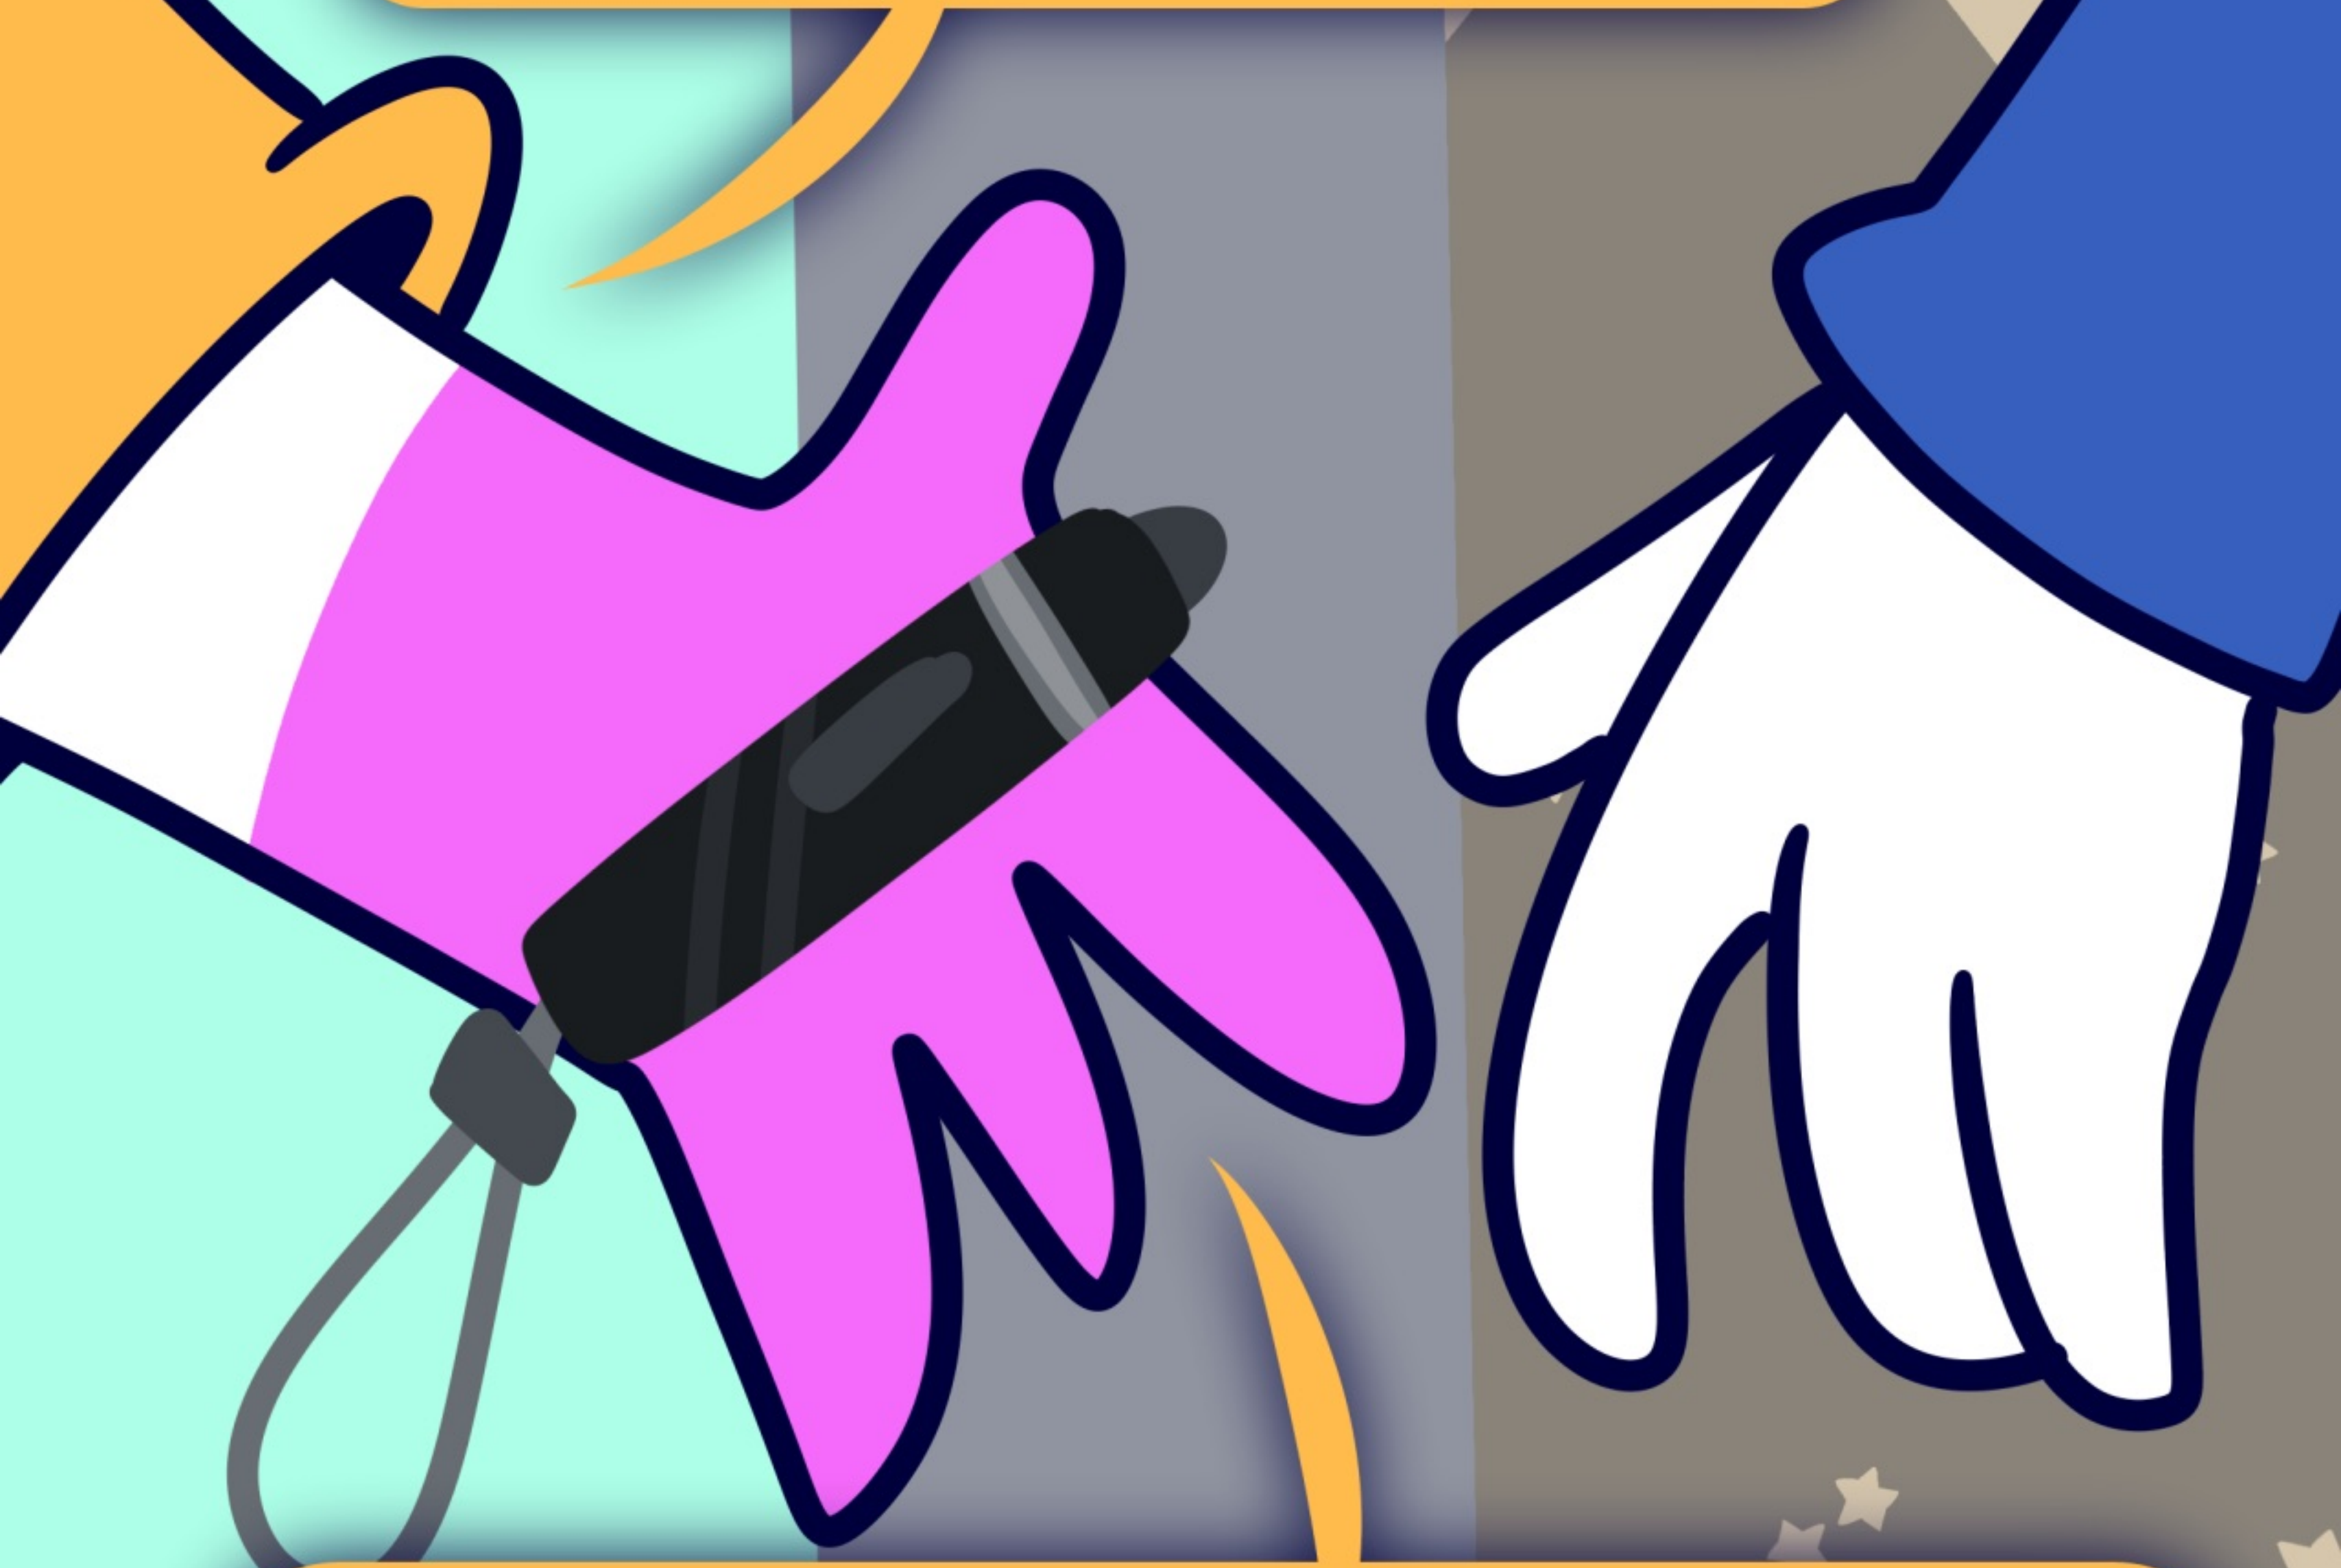

Hi Desblair, would you mind helping us out with something concerning aliens?

It also concerns ferries, and I know your interest in zoology extends beyond just cryptids!

P-PUT ME DOWN YOU CRAZY BITCH!!!!

These four accompanied Ally and Howie to the crash site of the East Eroid incident, and Sly found this wedged within the soil of the impact crater.

It appears to be a cog toy -- a laser pointer -- but for some reason, the light from the pointer seems to have a weird hypnotic effect on Sly specifically. I theorized that if it is an alien gadget, it's meant to mind-control ferries to follow aliens to their ships for experimentation. However, if this is the case, we cannot figure out why it's affecting Sly. What are your thoughts?

Well, Sly chasing it doesn't necessarily mean it's a ferry mind-control device. The reasons cogs chase laser pointers is because the fast movement of the dot of light mimic the motions of a living creature, like prey they can catch. If he's chasing it, it doesn't necessarily mean he's being mind-controlled.

It's possible that Sly is simply acting on the natural predatory instincts of our ancestors, antherries. He may just have an innate desire to hunt and kill.

Aha! So that's it!
Sly is a caveman.

WE ARE MAKING LITERALLY
NO PROGRESS AT ALL!!! THIS IS GOING NOWHERE!!! I'M OBVIOUSLY NOT A CAVEMAN!!!!

starfireseraphim asked:

Wait, do you any possibility that Sly might be an...
Alien?

Oh no, if you're gonna start accusing me of being an ALIEN then I'm just going back to my room.

I'm tired of all these mean theories being made about why some dumb laser toy would hypnotize me. It's not really that important.

There's so many possibilities here... if it isn't Sly being unintelligent... ..and isn't him being small... and isn't connected to antherry instincts...

And isn't him being a ferry... that means this has some kind of deeper reading of him as a person... the device may be seeing something that WE aren't aware of. Something about Sly's identity that we don't know about.
Or maybe it's... spiritual.

Ah, that's right! I never even considered it being an identity thing! There's actually an entire subculture of people who identify as partially or entirely non-anthry. There are even some people who identify as fictional characters, sometimes those are non-anthries.

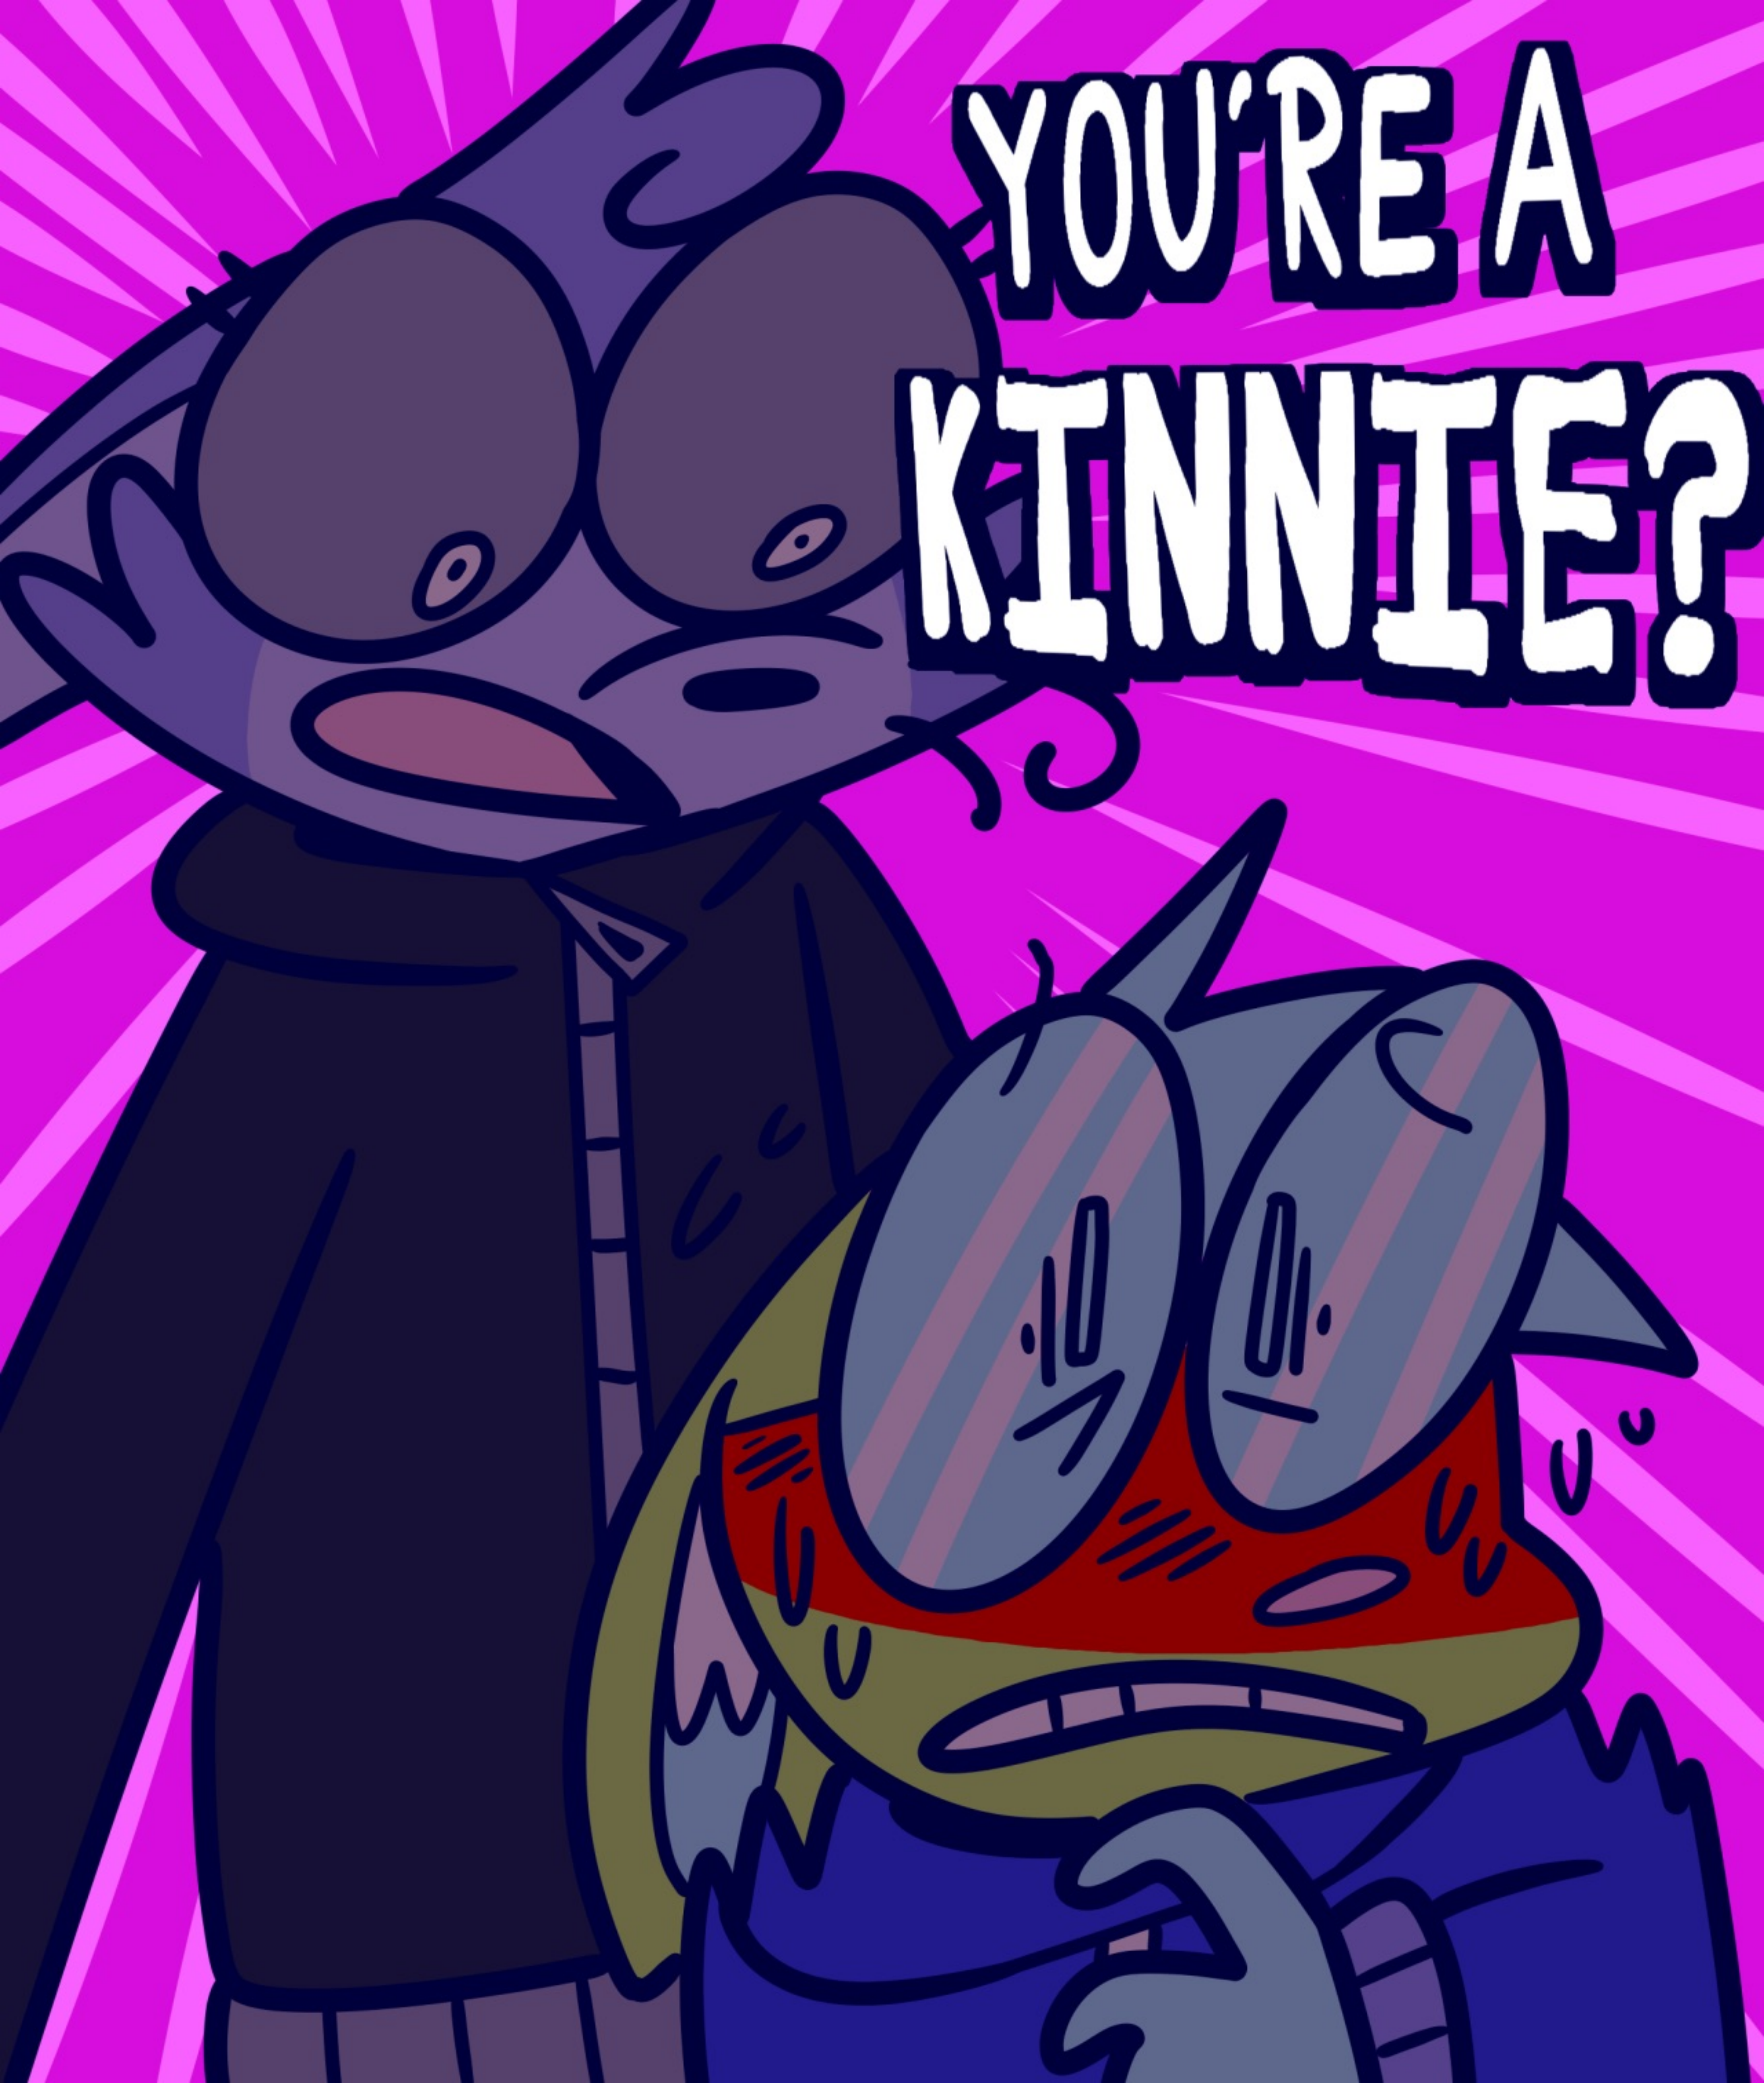

Sly, you've always told me that you felt a really strong connection with the Geopet species known as a "borsi" right? Do you think it's possible that your identifying with this fictional species could be a bigger aspect of your identity than you might think?

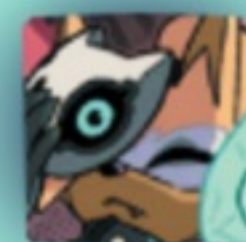

A cartoon illustration featuring two cats. The purple cat, on the left, has large, round, grey eyes and a dark blue robe. The green cat, on the right, has large, round, light blue eyes with white and blue stripes, a red collar, and a blue shirt. The green cat is looking up at the purple cat with a nervous expression. A yellow speech bubble is positioned above the green cat's head.

U-uhhh... I... told you that in confidence, Chem...

YOU'RE A KINNIE?

jayflamestar asked:

sly. you know what to do. drop the kinlist.

T-that doesn't even make sense!!! Why would an alien laser be aware of some weird part of my identity anyways?!

eeveeskittles asked:

Slyyy is this trueeee??? /silly

B-BESIDES. I'M NOT.
AND EVEN IF I WAS IT ISN'T ANYONE ELSE'S BUSINESS.

enderlordisadumbusername asked:

how is the laser pointer supposed to know that though?
i think these explanations are no longer being proposed in good faith and exist purely to torment sly!

Hey buddy, I wasn't making fun of you, I think it's cool. I was just kinda surprised is all.

We'd never make fun of a serious part of your identity.

That's right! We know how important Geopets is to you and how happy it makes you, if that's how you identify we'd never disrespect your identity, even if it isn't something we personally relate to. It's who you are, and you're our brother and we love who you are.

.....d-do.....
...do you really...
....mean that?

Of course, big brother.
In fact, I respect you so much that I'm gonna start calling you a little borse boy.

radioxen asked:

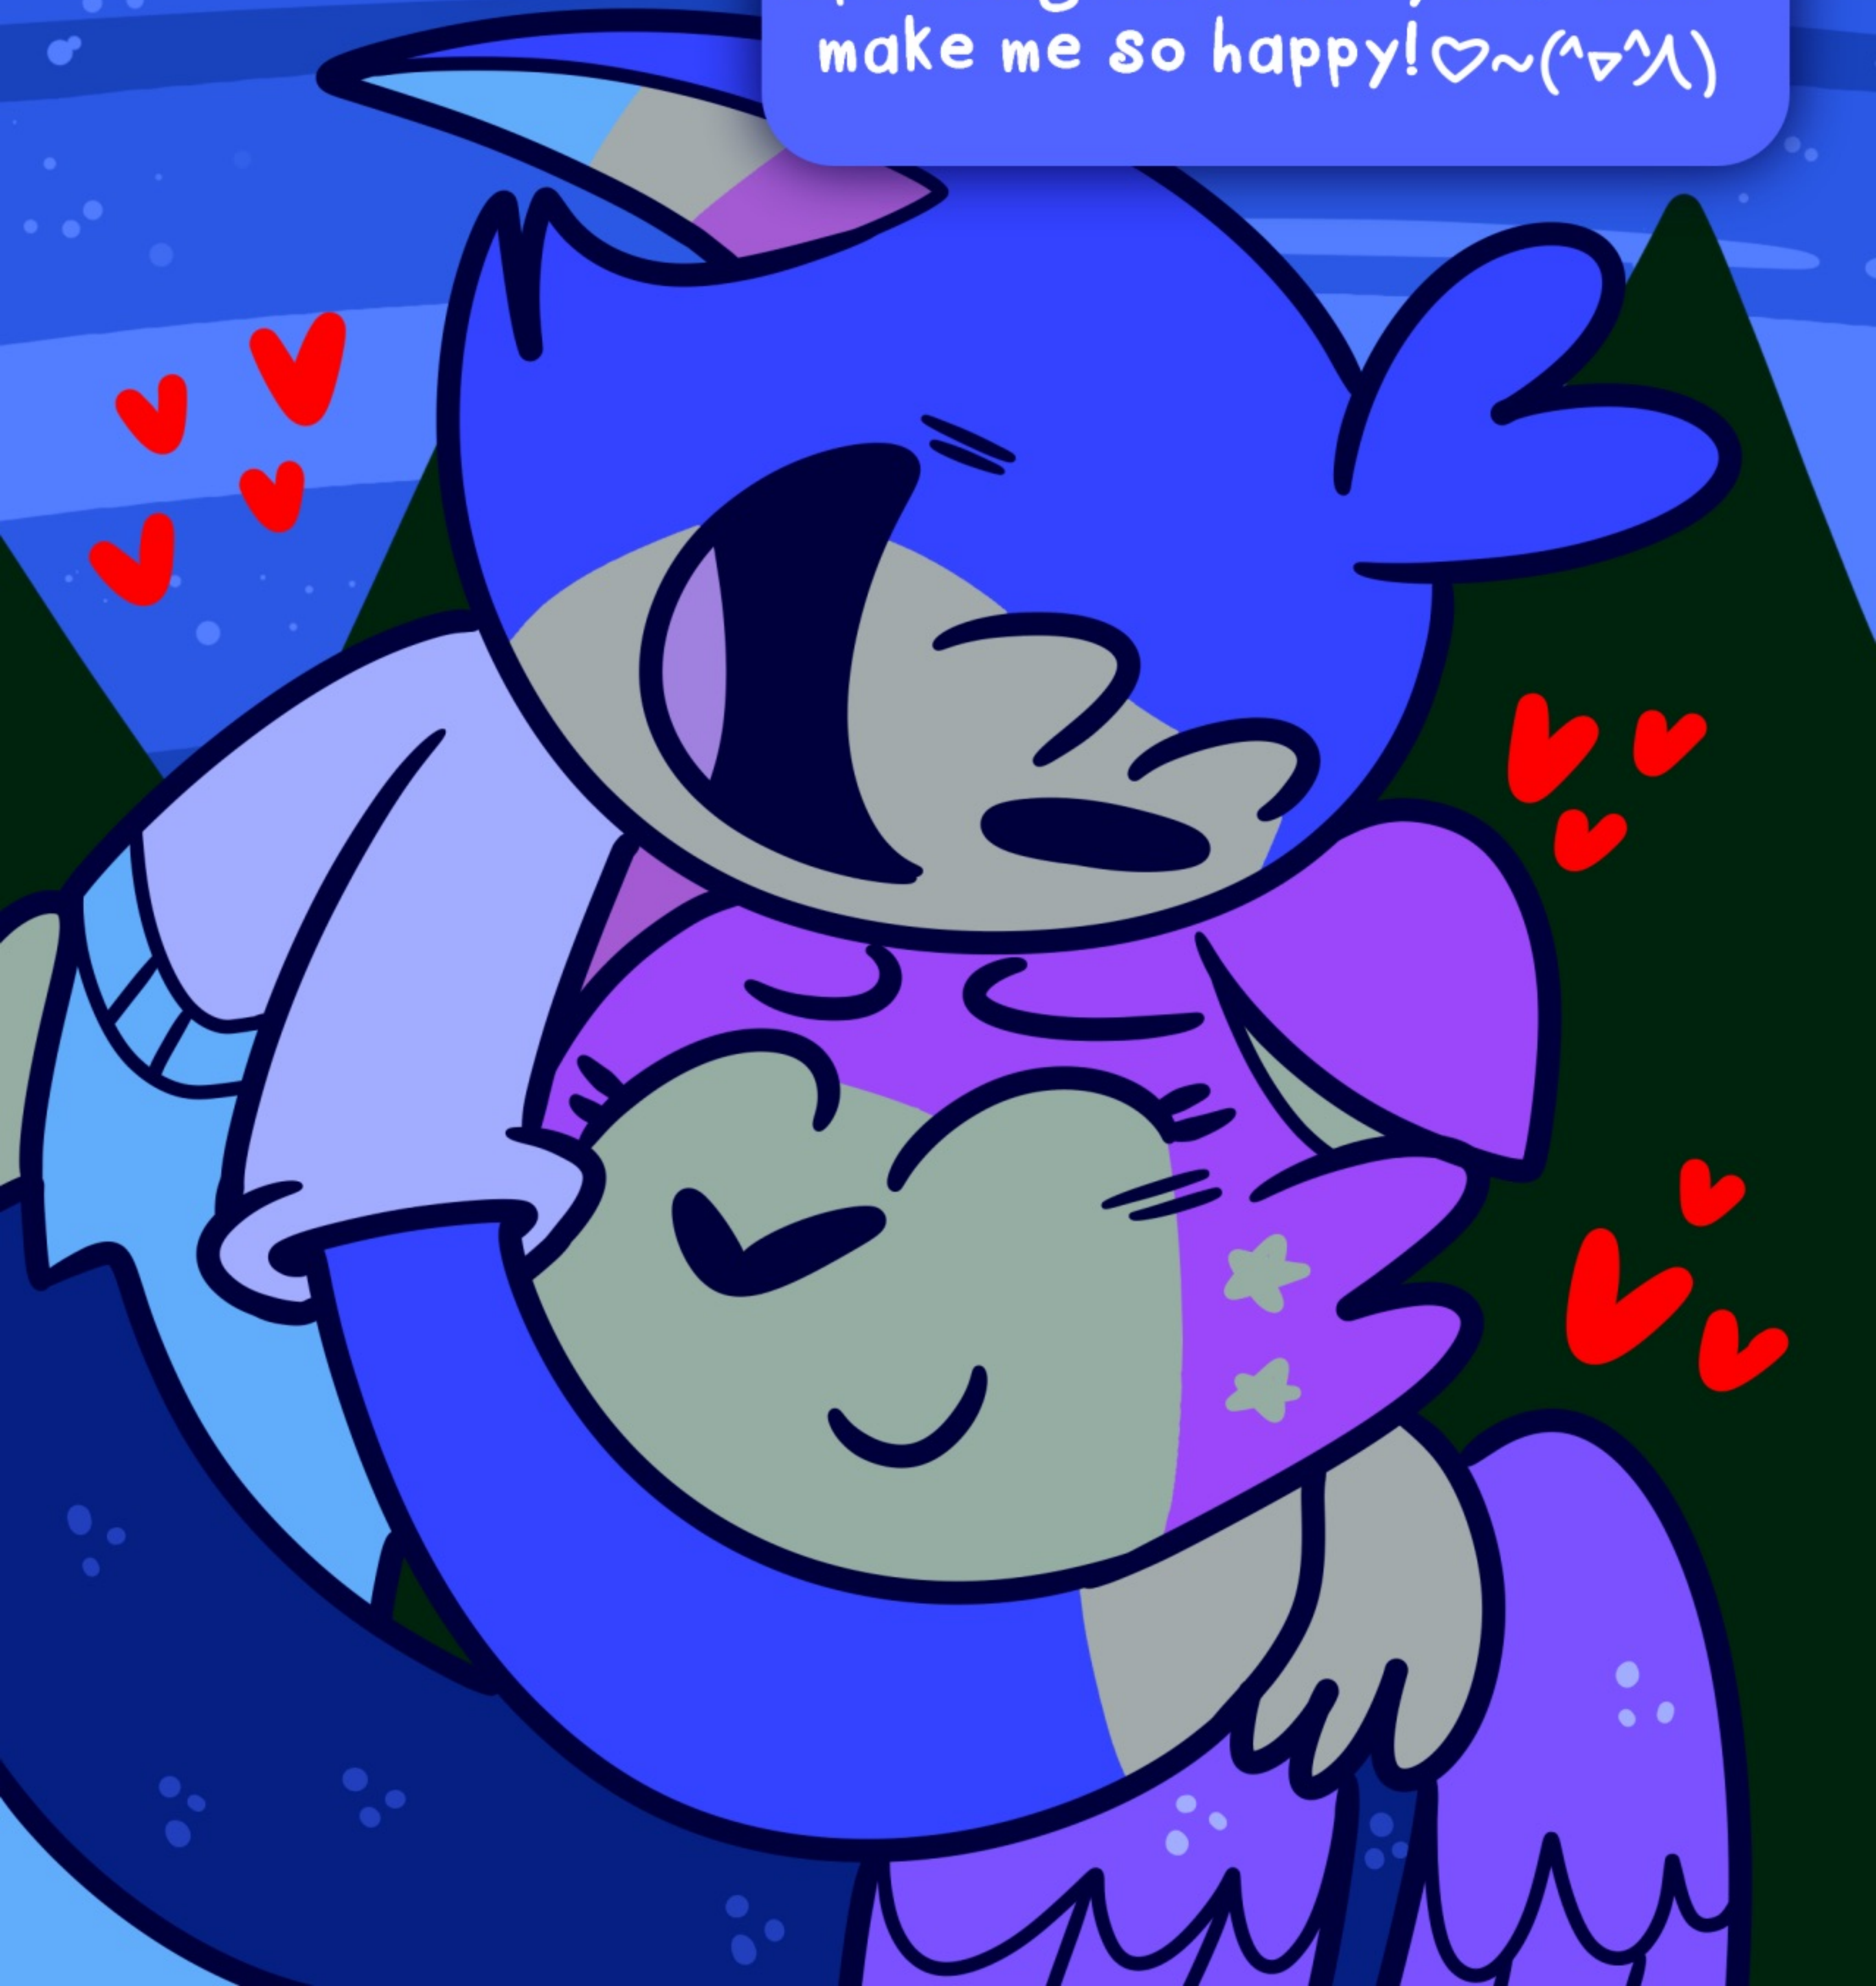

I wonder if Howie and Ally found anything else at the crash sight?

sinnamonsters asked:

Ally, why are you anxious about this? Your dad doesn't seem like the type to get mad or anything about something like that...

(I know he won't be mad... that's not the issue here...)

(The issue is that conversation we had before I left with Howie...)

(Vehemently denying what he assumed only to turn around and ask if Howie can stay the night... i-isn't exactly a good look.)

(I-it's just..... embarrassing. I'm not afraid of him being angry. I'm just afraid he'll say something weird about it in front of Howie and embarrass me and make things weird between us....)

jayflamestar asked:

act natural, he won't notice if you act natural probably hopefully likely maybe perhaps

(T-that's not gonna work!!! He's gonna see us walk in!!! He's literally facing this way!!!)

(And he's gonna ask questions for sure!!!)

Ally, ask him quick and boldly, no way he says no now that Howie is there!

(Quick and boldly... that's right! I need to

I have to be confident!)

enderlordisadumbusername asked:

YOU CAN'T SAY ANYTHING ABOUT

DON'T EVEN MENTION IT ONCE. OKAY?

BECAUSE IF YOU DON'T SAY ANYTHING, THINGS WON'T BE WEIRD BETWEEN US. IT'LL ALL BE TOTALLY

Grave Thangs @gravethangs 1m ago you two have been close since you guys were babies, sure it might be awkward but perhaps talking about it and discussing it will help you move away from that awkwardness in the future. a little pain now before it turns into something that could really hurt, y'know? i'm rooting for you two!

spec!! 🌈 @rnbwgoop 1m ago

just play it cool, dont pretend it didnt happen and be willing to discuss without letting yourself get overwhelmed/embarrassed if you can help itat all

Star Kittycorn @extrapurrestrial 5s ago i don't know how to discuss this though.

once again, i'm not really ready to be in this situation... i know i haven't said what it is exactly but i think people probably know

....o-okay.
Howie?

We're gonna go upstairs and... I wanna talk about this. It shouldn't have to be so weird-- electricentertainer asked:

Apologize and pray that it doesn't get worse. If that doesn't work...well maybe something else will happen that'll throw attention away from you?

...oh, hey, you guys are back, we found--

HUG!

SLY!!! I'M SO HAPPY TO SEE YOU MY LOVELY BIG BROTHER!!!

HOW ARE YOU!!! YOU'RE
SO WONDERFUL AND I LOVE
HAVING YOU AROUND!!!!

...okay, what did you blow up and how many people died?

somewandomnoob asked:

You don't wanna know.

...uh. You know,
yeah, I don't think I do. Don't explain.

nowadaysrealnewsnetwork asked:

Found? Sly, what did you find?

...we found out that this thing is a laser pointer cog toy, b-but it...

nowadaysrealnewsnetwork asked:

Found? Sly, what did you find?

.....apparently.... it can... control ferries?
Or something? Or..... things that identify as ferries. I- I guess it's a respectful alien device.

That's all you found out?

Yep. You can have it if you want. I dunno what else to do with it.

Hey Sock monkey, you're cog kin, you wanna play with it?

Since I'm alien kin, it totally works! It's like my alien device and you're the cog!!!

.....uhhhh. O....kay.
I'll leave you...to that.
I guess.....

....I don't think that was a sex thing but somehow that makes it weirder than if it had been.

Let's go upstairs
then! It'll be fun!!!

Okey Awwy!!!
